Sensitive Issues are defined as topics that could be considered controversial (health or education in human sexuality, advocacy projects, work with religious groups or anything that could yield a political/social debate.) When sensitive issues are presented to Girl Scouts, leaders or consultants must provide information only, not personal opinions.

Our Girl Scout Troop will be discussing topics that are defined as a sensitive issue. Parent/guardian permission is required for the girls to participate. We will be discussing the following sensitive topics on the dates listed below. Please sign and return this form by _____.
