Troop Leadership

All troop leaders/advisors and assistant leaders are required to take Troop Leadership training within six months after appointment to the position. The Troop Leadership training consists of three parts which are taken in this order: Getting Started/Orientation, New Leader Basics and Girl Scout Grade Level Leadership.

Leadership Training: Do It YOUR Way!

New Leader Basics, Girl Scout Daisy Grade Level, Girl Scout Brownie Grade Level and Girl Scout Junior Grade Level are currently available in the class room setting, by paper home study and in an on-line version. Girl Scout Cadette, Senior and Ambassador Advisor is currently available in a classroom setting only. You may complete one part with one learning format and another part with a different format. To receive the home study or on-line version of your selected course, request it from your Membership Director.

STEP 1: Getting Started/Orientation

This two-hour training is given by your service unit orientation specialists, taking place within your service unit or local neighborhood. Topics include the structure of the Girl Scout organization and information for starting a troop.

As a pilot project, we have scheduled three group orientations to assist Service Units in providing this training component. These will be held in the Stockton area.
