

Service Unit Fall Product Program Manager

Position: Service Unit Fall Product Program Manager (Volunteer)

Function: Serve as the first point of contact for troops within the service unit

Support Team: Product Program Department

Time Commitment: August-November

Do you have a passion for...

- The Girl Scout Movement
- Results driven by consistent communication
- Organization and follow-through
- Planning and implementation
- Working with people of all walks of life
- Making a difference in the lives of others

Benefits:

- The opportunity to make a difference in the lives of others
- Gain experience with building relationships
- Gain experience with facilitating and coordinating
- Network with professionals with a similar passion of making a difference
- Enhance your personal and professional skills
- Gain valuable technical skills
- Volunteer with flexible and convenient hours

Requirements/Responsibilities:

- Seeks ways to help troops teach girls about the 5 Skills
- Is able to train troop fall product managers on their role and how to set troop goals with girls
- Assist troops with online ordering system, Nut-e
- Provide timely communication and support to the troops within your service unit
- Assist troops with sales reports
- Is available to collect all money and paperwork from troops to submit to Product Program by program deadline
- Own a personal computer with high speed Internet
- Is or will become an adult member of Girl Scouts of the USA, at least 18 years of age
- Pass a criminal background check every 3 years
- Ability to use smartphone for program tools and communication
- Is aware and accepting of religious, educational, racial, ethnic, and socioeconomic groups within the community
- Is accepting and committed to organizational diversity
- Provides a positive and equal experience to all
- Willing to participate in a end-of-term position performance assessment
- Opt-in to receive electronic communications

What's Next?

- Is this your current volunteer position? Please select this position in our opportunity catalog.
- New volunteers: For more information, or to apply, email customercare@girlscoutshcc.org