

Service Unit Story Teller

Position: Service Unit Story Teller

Function: Share stories of what Girl Scouts are doing in your Service Unit

Support Team: Marketing & Communications

Do you have a passion for...

- Meeting new people
- Learning about the activities of local-area Girl Scout troops
- Taking pictures (no fancy equipment needed; a smartphone will do)
- Telling Girl Scout stories and showing off our fantastic Girl Scouts and their activities
- Sharing your love of Girl Scouting
- Exploring ways to communicate with the public about the benefits of Girl Scouting

Benefits:

- Sharing news from your service unit and making friends along the way
- Developing an eye for news and feature stories
- Networking among different groups
- Earn community service hours
- Gain the gratitude of parents and girls who love to see their activities in print and on social media
- Gain valuable skills in public relations, writing and photography
- Close contact and open communication with the Marketing & Communications team at GSHCC
- Training and support provided by GSHCC staff
- You will be provided with links to all of your stories as they appear on social media and/or print

Responsibilities/Requirements:

- Is (or is willing to become) a member of Girl Scouts of the USA, age 18 or older
- Must complete a background check verification every 3 years
- Make connections with volunteers within your service unit
- Participate in brainstorming about events, local publications, blogs and social media outlets where Girl Scout stories could be shared
- Attend and participate in service unit team meetings as needed
- Submit at least two short (100 words or less) story ideas per month to the Marketing & Communications team at GSHCC, including photos
- Encouraging others to submit stories through our easy, online portal

What's Next:

- Is this your current volunteer position? Please select this position in our opportunity catalog.
- New volunteers: For more information, or to apply, email customer@girlscoutshcc.org