Why Participate

This program plays a key role in helping Girl Scouts grow as leaders while building the 5 Skills. It's a simple and enjoyable way for your troop to get ready for the Girl Scout Cookie Program. With Girl Delivery, girls can offer contactless transactions while still adding a personal touch for customers. It also provides valuable practice for exciting new ways to participate in the cookie program—beyond the options you already know! Review our program flyer to find out more.

How to Participate

Troops are eligible to participate in this fall product program if they meet the following requirements: two registered, background-checked leaders and a registered, background-checked fall product manager for the 2027 membership year. Fall product managers must complete training in gsLearn. Additionally, your troop must have an active bank account and a submitted ACH Authorization Form.
