

Silver Award Rubric

Council Standard	Does NOT Meet Council Standards	Partially Meets Council Standards	Meets Council Standards
Girl is a Registered Girl Scout Cadette	Girl is NOT a registered Girl Scout Cadette	Girl is a registered Girl Scout Cadette	Girl is a registered Girl Scout Cadette
Girl has completed 1 Girl Scout Cadette Journey and understands the leadership qualities outlined in the journey	Girl has not completed 1 Girl Scout Cadette Journey	Girl has completed a Girl Scout Cadette Journey, but is not sure of the leadership qualities	Girl has completed a Girl Scout Cadette Journey and can demonstrate the leadership qualities
Silver Award Project is completed by an individual or a team of 2-4 girls	Girl plans to work on the Silver Award Project with her whole Troop	Girl works on the Silver Award Project on her own or with a team of 2-4 girls	Girl completes Silver Award Project on her own or with a team of 2-4 girls
Silver Award Take Action Project is has an aspect of sustainability and is working with an organization, not for and organization	Silver Award Project is a collection drive or is a Little Library or Buddy Bench. It's a "once and done" project with no sustainability aspect	Silver Award Project is working together with an organization or has a sustainability aspect, but not both	Silver Award Project is working together with an organization and has a sustainability aspect
Each Silver Award candidate (regardless of solo or in a team) has submitted their own Proposal that outlines what their leadership role is for their project.	Pre-approval of Silver Award Project was not submitted	Pre-approval of Silver Award Project was submitted	Pre-approval of Silver Award Project was submitted
Team or girl has taken suggestions from pre-approval to make the project better	No changes were made from pre-approval of Silver Award Project	Some changes were made after pre-approval, but project still lacks important details	Most changes were made after pre-approval of project
The project plan has a addressed a way that impact is measuarble.	No plan in place to measure projects impact	There's an idea for how to measure impact, but no plan to collect data	There is a system for collecting information about the project's impact and data is included.
Girl has put in an appropriate amount of hours into Silver Award Project (GSUSA suggests a minimum of 50 hours per girl .)	Girl has put in less than 25 hours into her Silver Award Project	Girl has put 25-50 hours into her Silver Award Project	Girl has put at least 50 hours into her Silver Award Project
Each Silver Award candidate (regardless of solo or in a team) has submitted their own Final Report. All information on Final Report is complete, correct and listed by her own name that she is registered under with GSHCC	Girl information is incomplete	Girl information is complete	Girl information is complete and has been checked for accuracy
Media links, photos and any other materials related to or documenting the project have been submitted by email to awards@girlscoutshcc.org	No materials have been submitted	Some materials have been submitted, but more was requestd	Sufficient materials were submitted to be able to illustrate the project process and outcome.