Meet Jamie, a Girl Scout Ambassador

Grow Her Confidence. Grow Her Future.

At GSHCC, girls discover their strengths, build confidence, and learn that they can create meaningful change in their communities. One inspiring example is Jamie, a Girl Scout Ambassador from Troop 2388.

For her Girl Scout Gold Award project, Jamie turned heartbreak into hope. After the loss of a beloved campground to wildfire, she rallied volunteers and planted 25 trees in a local park—an experience that helped shape her into a powerful advocate for her community. As Jamie shares, “I can see a bright future for girls like me, because of Girl Scouts and the amazing leaders and volunteers who pour themselves out for the betterment of girls like me.”

We invite you to read Jamie's full story and see the impact your support helps create. Your year-end gift ensures that every girl has the opportunity to grow, lead, and thrive. Make a gift today to empower the next generation of changemakers.
